Case No. 3:07-cv-05634-CRB

STIPULATION REGARDING PARTIAL WITHDRAWAL OF OBJECTION OF AMY YANG

Objector Amy Yang (“Yang”) and named plaintiffs (“Plaintiffs”) stipulate as follows:

WHEREAS, during the class period, Amy Yang asserts that she purchased tickets from American Airlines for trans-Pacific travel originating in the United States;

WHEREAS, Amy Yang asserts that she acted in good faith when she filed objections to the eight putative class settlements pending in this matter on April 17, 2015 (Dkt. 993);

WHEREAS, Ms. Yang and her counsel have no desire to object to settlements where Ms. Yang is not a class member;

WHEREAS, the settlements that plaintiffs have entered into with Cathay Pacific, Thai Airways and Qantas do not include individuals who purchased flights from “co-conspirators,” nor do they designate American Airlines as a defendant;

WHEREAS, because of this, Yang wishes to withdraw her objection only as to the Cathay Pacific, Thai Airways and Qantas settlements;

WHEREAS such a withdrawal requires the Court’s approval under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(5);

WHEREAS neither Yang nor her counsel have asked for nor received anything in exchange for stipulating to partially withdraw her objection; and

WHEREAS counsel for the defendants have stated that they do not oppose Yang’s partial withdrawal of her objection, but take the position that they need not participate in a stipulation for her to do so,

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED by and between plaintiffs and objector, subject to the Court’s approval, that Ms. Yang shall withdraw her objection to the Cathay Pacific, Thai Airlines and Qantas settlements, while retaining her objection with respect to the other five pending settlements.
